METAL CLAY EXPRESSIONS 3

Exhibit Dates: August 2 - August 28, 2021

This invitational exhibit features works by instructors and attendees at MCAS, the Metal Clay Artists Symposium. Awards sponsored by Mitsubishi Materials Trading Corporation are available exclusively to the student/attendees, to foster their development as artists and encourage a wide-ranging display of metal clay art. Entries eligible for awards will be judged on innovation, originality, craftsmanship and design.

Awards:

First Place - $500 cash award
Second Place - $300 cash award
Third Place - $200 cash award

ELIGIBILITY: This invitational exhibit will feature metal clay work by the instructors and students/attendees at the 2021 Metal Clay Artists Symposium. There is no separate entry fee; it was included in your MCAS General Registration. Instructors will be featured in the exhibit but are not eligible for cash awards. Up to two works per person will be accepted.

SHIPPING AND RETURN OF WORK: The artist is responsible for shipping work to SSVA. Works must arrive no later than July 23, 2021. Shipping/mailing address:

Sawtooth School for Visual Art
251 N. Spruce Street
Winston-Salem, NC 27101

Unsold works will be returned to artists on Saturday evening, August 28 or Sunday morning, August 29 at MCAS.

SALES: All work is encouraged to be available for sale, but it is not required. SSVA retains 40% commission of any sales; artists receive 60% of price. Artists are paid on the 15th of the month following the close of the exhibit.

Please return this Loan Agreement Form with your entries.
